Techniques for fabricating and characterizing thin films

 Damascus: 10-14/11/2019

Number: ٤٠٨ /2019

Notification:

The Syrian Atomic Energy Commission announces the establishment of a practical training course on fabricating and characterizing thin films.

The course objectives:

A practical training course on fabricating and characterizing thin films.

Practical training:

- Observation and practice of the modern techniques of fabricating thin films.
- To illustrate and describe the applications of thin films in various industrial fields.

Theoretical training:

- Theoretical training on modern techniques of fabricating and characterizing thin films.
- Theoretical training on the various applications of thin films in various industries.

Target audience:

Research and teaching staff in universities and academic institutions in the State of Qatar, and engineers and technical staff in the field.

Registration fee:

15,000 QAR per person.

Registration period:

Before 24/10/2019.

Registration process:

Submit a copy of your ID and a registration form to the official email address of the Syrian Atomic Energy Commission (nstte@acc.org.sy).

For more information, please visit the official website of the Syrian Atomic Energy Commission (www.aec.org.sy).

2132580 - Damascus.

The General Director
Dr. Ibrahim El-Atman